DONINGER - HILBURN - MANNING - Ms. Sally Randol McGill, 2504 Brookwater Circle, Birmingham, AL 35243-4330 seeks the parents and siblings of REUBEN MANNING b.Jan. 1824,FL & ELIZABETH HILBURN b. Jun 1827 GA or AL, who married in Escambia Co.,FL 9-21-1852. They both d. after 1900, possibly in Covington Co.,AL. They are listed in the household of their married daughter, "MATTIE" MANNING DONINGER & her husband, LEWIS DONINGER, on the 1900 Federal Census for Covington Co., AL, Pct 18, River Falls. The children of Reuben & Elizabeth Manning are listed on the 1870 Escambia Co., AL Federal Census as: John-15; Martha-13; Matthew-8; James-5; William-4 & Ardelia-2. This 1870 census has a THOMAS J. & NANCY MANNING living next door to Reuben & Elizabeth. Both families are living in Pollard, AL. I have no other clue on REUBEN MANNING's relatives. I do have a "maybe" on ELIZABETH HILBURN's parents. There is a JEHEN HILLBURNS on the 1850 Escambia Co., FL Census. He is given as 46 years old b.NC. His wife, Elizabeth, is 40 b. GA.. The children are listed as: Eliza A.-22 b.GA; all other children b.AL-Caroline-20; Augustus-18; Vaughan-16; John W.-15; Jehen-13; Benjamin W.-12; Mary A.-10; William-7; Nancy-4; & Frances-2. Surely, there are some HILBURN genealogists out of this mob (?)

Dear Mr. Manning,
Mother (Mary Ida Bentley RANDOL) was so tickled to get your letter. She is trying to trace MANNINGs that tie into her BENTLEY line. I am trying to find a line of MANNINGs on my husband's lineage that may, or may not, ever cross the folks that you and mother are looking for. (Of course, if you go back FAR enough, I guess they will all converge...)

Anyway, Mother suggested that I summarize my findings for you to see if you might have crossed some information my guys:

Reuben Manning

b. ca. Jan. 1824 , FL
m. 9-21-1852 Escambia County, FL (I have a copy of their marriage record.)
d. after 1900 probably Covington County, AL or FL

Elizabeth Hilburn (many spellings of Hilburn)

b. ca. Jan. 1827, GA
d. after 1900 probably Covington County, AL or FL

THEORIES about REUBEN's parents: (???)

1850 Census Record: — Escambia County, FL

112	112	John MANNING	26	M	W	Laborer	FL

		Merida	22	F	W		FL
		Maria (?)	16	F	W		FL
		Martha	56	F	W		NC

STRICTLY CONJECTURE:
Note: I think that this could be my Reuben with siblings and his mother, Martha.
Note: Martha's husband might have been named JOHN. The older brother still living at home is John; Reuben named his eldest boy JOHN, and Thomas, the next door Manning, on the 1870 Pollard census named his eldest boy JOHN.
Note: John, Reuben & Thomas could have all been brothers with a dad named JOHN.

There is only ONE Hilburn (all spellings) on the 1850 Escambia County, FL Census - I think this could very well be my Elizabeth Hilburn and her family (siblings & parents) ???

OTHER POSSIBILIES:

Through PRODIGY, I have received additional possibilities:

****

From Elizabeth Miller 5/8/93: "I am also researching the Manning family in Alabama & Florida. My research is mainly Pike County, Ala. and Ponce de Leon, Fla. I found a Reuben Manning in some of my notes:

1850 Butler County, Alabama

John MANNING	72	NC
Elizabeth	61	NC
Reuben	22	Ala.
Caroline	18	Ala.
Mary BULLOCK	18	Ala.
Charles BULLOCK	13	Ala.
Sarah BULLOCK	10	Ala.
Sydney BULLOCK	5	Ala.

This was on a note given to me by someone and I don't know the source. It may be helpful.

I am researching James Lorenzo MANNING b. 1837 Pike County, AL m. Nancy Ann JACKSON, (my g-grandparents). This couple moved to Ponce de Leon, Fla., about 1889 and then on to Westville, Fla." Elizabeth Miller Denham Springs, LA

Another PRODIGY note by Elizabeth had, " James Lorenzo Manning's father was Wm. H. Manning and his mother was Nancy Deason."

****

From Mary Harper 5/8/93: I have two MANNING families in my line. My Drury MANNING b. 1789 GA m. Rebecca MANNING b. 1793 GA. The father of Rebecca was John MANNING b. 1763 NC. Possible Drury's father was also a John MANNING/MANNEN who made a will in Laurens Co., GA 8 May 1813 mentioning Drury.

In Laurens Co., GA there also was a Reuben MANNING m. Elfa CURRY on 30 Jan 1827. Other mentions were made of him from 1819 to 1832--then nothing ! This group seemed to have come from NC.

My Drury and Rebecca MANNING moved to Catahoula Parish, LA and finally to Polk Co., TX. Rebecca's father, John Clark MANNING moved to Wilcox Co., AL then to Perry Co., MS where he died in March of 1850.

I don't see a connection with our families, but who knows ? John Clark MANNING was born in NC, but I know nothing more of him or the other John MANNEN." ... Mary in Titusville, FL....

From Charlotte under Roger Hatcher's PRODIGY id:
" Sally -- My G-G-Grandfather is Andrew Manning b. 1813 GA d. 1898 in Monroe Co., AL. His first wife was Nancy Knowles 1823/1853 m. 1847. Second wife was Arminta Daniels 1830/1913 m. 1854. There were 17 children: J.W. 1848, Victoria 1849, George 1851, Reuben 1852, Barney 1853, born to Nancy.

Wade 1855, Newton 1856 (my g-grandfather), Jasper 1857, Evan 1859, Oliver 1861, Clanton 1863, Nettie 1865, Drunett 1866, Wm. Riley 1868, Ella 1873, Albert 1873, Alonzo 1877 born to Arminta.

Reuben married Mary Stanton of Pollard, Al. in 1876. The Pollard area was known by Andrew's family as well as Monroe Co., Al., and Santa Rosa Co., Fl. It is thought Andrew had brothers, Tom and Reuben, who may have lived in Bluff Springs, Florida."

Mother and I have collected quite a bit of informatiion about a MANNING family that starts with: John Manning, who patented land in Bertie County, N.C. in 1743 from VA. This line goes down through Benjamin Manning who married Pharoby/Pheriby Duggan. The folks go to AL and to FL and they use the name "Reuben" frequently, but I do not find MY Reuben in the family.

I also found a record in my last trip to the B'ham Library Southern History Collection that was in "The Florida Genealogist" page 43 of the Winter 1989 issue:
Company B
Reuben Manning Capt. 20 March 1827
(I do not know whether this is MY Reuben, or not.)

Bruce, does ANY of this ring a bell ? It seems to be all over it, but I still want to make the exact cuts - Any insights that you can share will be greatly appreciated.

Anxiously awaiting a reply. I hope that there is something in this letter that will be useful to you !

MANING FAMILY

THOMAS and SARAH MANING of Norfolk County, Virginia, made a deed of gift on 16 Dec. 1758 to their son-in-law, James Granberry [Norfolk Deed Book 18, p. 224]. They were living there at least as late as 1767, but neither of them has a will on record in Norfolk County. Their grandsons, Moses and George Granberry, settled in Pitt County, North Carolina. No deeds of Thomas or Sarah Maning have been found in Pitt County, but on 26 Sept. 1774 Moses Maning (with Lydia his wife) conveyed to Samuel Maning, all described as of Pitt County, land on the east side of Little Contentony Creek in that county which had been granted to Moses Maning by patent dated 24 May 1773 [Pitt County Deed Book F, p. 110]. This deed was witnessed by Caleb Tripp (his mark), Thomas Maning, and Sarah Maning (her mark).

It thus seems likely that Thomas and Sarah Maning, having disposed of their real estate to their children, were living in old age in Pitt County, N. C., with some of their relatives there, and that Moses and Samuel Maning were their sons. Moses Granberry was thus named after his uncle Moses Maning as well as after his grandfather Granberry. Norfolk County Marriage Bonds include that of Moses Manning to Lydia Smith on 12 Nov. 1762 [Virginia County Records, 6-167], and since the wife Lydia signed the 1774 deed with him in Pitt County, this constitutes additional evidence of the removal of this branch of the Maning family from Norfolk County, Va., to Pitt County, N. C., and that Moses was son of Thomas and Sarah Maning who witnessed his deed.

The Maning family was numerous in Norfolk County, and a great deal of research would be required to make sure of the line back to the first settler. The following records are here brought together as an aid to those who may wish to pursue the inquiry further, and our conclusions are meant to be tentative and suggestive rather than definitive.

JOHN[1] (or William) MANING first appears in the following record: "John Manning, 200 acres. Lower Norfolk County, 25 Oct. 1648. Upon Northward side of the Gaythers Creek, being a branch of the Southward branch of Elizabeth River, running unto land of Marmadicke Merrington. Due unto said William for transportation of 4 persons: William Baxter, Chr. Collins, Martha Brice, Francis Robinson."

It is unfortunate that the record errs as to Maning's name, but it is thought that John is correct rather than William, for the banns of John Maning to Lidia Richardson were published 16 Apr. 1660 in Lower Norfolk (now Princess Anne) County, Va. [County Court Note-Book, 1-34]. In view of the date, this was probably a second marriage if it refers to the original John.

There are records in the next generation of John, Thomas, and Nicholas Maning, who may all have been sons of the original John. In an alphabetical list of the Quit Rents of Norfolk County in 1704, we find "Tho. Manning 97" and "Nich° Maning 260" [The Virginia Magazine, 30-26].

THOMAS[2] MANING seems to have married a widow Wattford, for a John Wattford made his will 29 Apr. 1694, proved 15 May 1694, in which he gave all his land to brother Solomon Maning, "the youngest Son of my ffather in law Tho: Maning"; to "my ffather & Mother the Cow . . . . . Dampell"; to my brother John Maning, one heifer; to my sister Sarah Maning one heifer; to my brother Thomas Maning, three sows and a young barrow; and he made "my father in Lawe Tho: Maning" executor [C. F. McIntosh: Lower Norfolk County and Norfolk County Wills 1637-1710, p. 151]. Since John Wattford was of age to make a will in 1694, he was born probably about 1670, perhaps earlier; and his younger Maning half-brothers and sister can be placed as born around 1670-1685. The sons of Thomas Maning are identified as John, Thomas, and Solomon. Of these, Thomas Jr. is probably the "young Thomas Maning" who received a cow by the will of Francis Nash, 16 Mar. 1686 [ib., p. 118]. In 1737 the will of Thomas Hobgood, Sr., mentioned his daughter Frances Manning, and the will was witnessed by Solo° Manning [C. F. McIntosh: Norfolk County Wills 1710-1753, p. 234]. This may refer to Solomon, youngest son of Thomas Maning, Sr., who was a boy in 1694 when named in Wattford's will. In 1718/19, the will of Matthew Spivey (step-father of the wife of John Granbery) was witnessed by Thomas Manning, who made his mark [ib., p. 78].

The branch of Thomas[2] Maning has not been further traced. Since our Thomas, father-in-law of James Granberry, had a married daughter by 1758, and was living in 1774, he was born probably around 1700. He would not be old enough to identify with the son of Thomas[2], but he could have been a grandson.

JOHN[2] MANING made his will 22 July 1715, proved 18 Jan. 1716, calling himself "John Maning Senr of the Southern branch of Elizabeth River Parrish in the County of Norfolk." He made his wife Sarah and son Joseph executors; gave to son John Maning "the plantation whereon he now Liveth"; to son Joseph Maning "after the Decease of Sarah my wife the plantation whereon I now Live," referring to "his mother my wife"; to son William Maning "the plantation whereon he now Lives"; to son Thomas Maning, 40 acres; "all my Children" (including probably unnamed daughters). Witnesses: [illegible] Manning Junr, Joseph Hodgis, John Willis. [C. F. McIntosh: Norfolk County Wills 1710-1753, p. 51.]

It is clear that the three elder sons were already married in 1715, John and William living on plantations of their own, while Joseph was to have the home plantation. Joseph must have married before 1712, because in his own will dated 27 Mar. 1733, proved 17 Dec. 1742, he had a son old enough to be appointed executor. Joseph, like his father, was of the Southern Branch of Elizabeth River Parish, and he had a wife Martha and four children.—Malachi, Joseph, Martha and Mary [ib., p. 171]. The birth of the children of John[2] can be placed between 1680 and 1700. If Thomas was his youngest son, he would be about the right age for our Thomas, but that remains unproved.

NICHOLAS[2] MANING married Elizabeth Rise or Joyce, daughter of Judith Rise of Norfolk County whose will, proved 15 Sept. 1704, named a son John Joyce and a daughter Judith Taylor in addition to Elizabeth Maning [C. F. McIntosh: Lower Norfolk County and Norfolk County Wills 1637-1710, p. 186]. Nicholas had a daughter Elizabeth; it has not been ascertained whether he had sons.

It appears that Thomas[2] and John[2] Maning may have married sisters, born Hodges. The will of Margrett Taylor, made 5 Apr. 1679, proved 15 Aug. 1679, named her four small children; son John; "my brother Roger Hodges may have my daughter Margarett"; "my brother Thomas Maning may have my daughter Suzanna"; "Wm Owens may have my sone Richard"; "Brothers Roger Hodges & Jno. maning, & Thomas maning and my loving friend Wm Owens to be overseers"; son Thomas, now nursing. [ib., p. 68.] Of course it is possible that Margaret Taylor was born a Maning, sister of Thomas[2] and John[2], and that another sister married Roger Hodges. It is also possible that the original John[1] Maning married a widow Hodges, and that Roger and Margaret were brother and sister of the half blood to Thomas[2] and John[2] Maning. Or finally, Margaret may have been own sister of Roger Hodges and may have had Hodges sisters who married the two Maning brothers. We favor one of the two latter theories rather than the first, chiefly because she named Roger Hodges first in disposing of her younger children, and also named him first of the four overseers.

Since only four of the five children were described as "small," the son John was probably in his 'teens, while Thomas Taylor was an infant. That rather definitely fixes Margaret's age as about 35, making her born about 1644, before John[1] Maning received his grant; and that consideration also favors one of the two latter theories, rather than the assumption that she was born a Maning.

Her son, Thomas Taylor, was born about 1678, and died in 1747. His will, dated 18 May 1745, proved 19 Mar. 1746/7, made son John and wife Mary executors; gave five shillings each to son Andrew, daughter Margaret Brown, son William, and daughter Anne Noas; to son Caleb, a negro; remainder to wife and to these five children—Richard Taylor, James Taylor, Joshua Taylor, Sarah Maning, and Judith Powers [C. F. McIntosh: Norfolk County Wills 1710-1753, p. 203]. It is estimated that Sarah Taylor could have been about the proper age for Sarah the wife of our Thomas Maning, but no evidence has been seen that she was, and the Manings were too numerous a tribe to make guessing safe.

MANNING

In search of the ancestry of the Manning family as listed on the 1830 Wilcox Co., Ala. census. John, b. 1760's, is the senior Manning listed. Later census indicates they were residents of GA ca. 1800 & that John, Sr., along with members of his family, migrated to SE MS. According to Rev. Pension files, John Manning of NC to Richland Co., SC, is not the same as John of Richmond Co., GA. Refer to: "Our Kin" by Wm. H. & Edna Anderson Manning (copy at Sutro). The Wilcox Co. family is not included in this excellent book.

MANNING

In search of the ancestry of the Manning family as listed on the 1830 Wilcox Co., Ala. census. John, b. 1760's, is the senior Manning listed. Later census indicates they were residents of GA ca. 1800 & that John, Sr., along with members of his family, migrated to SE MS. According to Rev. Pension files, John Manning of NC to Richland Co., SC, is not the same as John of Richmond Co., GA. Refer to: "Our Kin" by Wm. H. & Edna Anderson Manning (copy at Sutro). The Wilcox Co. family is not included in this excellent book.

I believe you & I are working on the same manning family - so would like to present the very little information I have.

Known facts:
My grandmother - Phoebe Manning Dau. of & John Andrew Manning b c 1850 &
Georgia Ann Herrington b 3/2/1851

John Andrew Manning was the brother of
Martin VAN manning b 1853 { lived in Greene or Perry Co
& Sophronia Walley
(Dau. of John & Cassanda Walley)

(I have names of children of above couples if you are interested.)

I have searched in vain for the parents of John & Martin. I did find John & Martin listed in the 1880 CS for Jackson and Greene counties, respectively. Their father listed born in Georgia & mother born in MS. (over)

I have searched almost every Manning in State of MS in 1860 CS. So far I have not found anything that would provide a clue. I have not given up yet. My latest clue was the info. you mailed to me a few months ago. your data listed a John C. Manning b c 1760 & 6 children.

I found John & Robert in the 1840 Greene Co. CS.

John m. 1770-1780
"Son" 1810-1820
wife 1780-170

} This perhaps is John C. & his son Edmond
LAST NAME Spelled MANING ← only 1 "N"

→ next household

Robert maning 1790-180
Son 1825-1830
Son 1835-1840 *
wife 1800-1810
dau 1825-1830
dau 1830-1835

next door neighbor is Thomas Walley Jr & Sr.

In the 1880 Jackson Co., MS, CS. we find Beat 5, page 38:

John Manning age 30 ← this is my g gr father
Georgiann " 27
James 7, 5, Rosey 6/12
next door to John is:
R. Manning age 38 (b 18
Matilda age 45
(no children listed)

} later we find the "R" stands for "Robert"

Now — comes the guess work — could this R. Manning, age 38, in 1880 be the son of Robert Maning & listed in 1840 CS 1835-1840 SON BORN — 5 * could the other Son of Robert Maning born 1825-1830 be the father of John Andrew.
The time frame is correct.

Robert manning is listed in a list of confederate Soldiers living in Jackson Co, MS. in June 1907. His age listed as 69, therefore, born 1838.

In 1912, AUG. 26, Matilda Manning applied for a Civil war pension. Her husband Robert Manning had died in July, 1912 at Vestry, MS. Jackson Co. Her age listed as 82 - If so, was born 1830

The application indicated Robert had one brother & one half brother -

Did Matilda lie in 1850 CS when she revealed she was 45 or born in 1835.

Did Robert marry his deceased brother's widow (Matilda)? ??

As you can see - I need some help to pin this family down.

John Andrew Manning married Georgia Ann Kennington, the daughter of John Milton Kennington & Rhoda S. Evans. I have traced the Kennington family all over the southern counties of MS. & will submit my findings to Jean Strickland, in near future.

Rhoda L. Manning married Jeptha John Fletcher

1846 " " " Edward "

I would assume that Edmond and Edward are one and the same son of John Clark Manning - If you can help me link up to this family I'll help in search in Georgia. I have a daughter in Atlanta, Ga & one in Savannah, Ga that will help.

I have petition for C.W. records of Robert Manning & for a list of all Mannings that fought in State of MS —

Please advise if you can help on Manning or Herrington family — Am also interested in parents of Rhoda S. Evans, the wife of John Milton Herrington

I note with interest Rebecca Manning m. Henry Manning.

The State of Georgia is loaded with Mannings — In Wayne Co. there is a Manning, Ga.

Dear Patricia,

Regarding your query in Family Puzzlers, perhaps your Manning family is connected to my line.

In 1735, Ephrain Manning & Richard Whitlee owned adjoining land in Bladen Co., N.C. Ref: Colony of N.C. 1735-1764 Land Patents by Hoffman. Later, in 1750's Edgecombe Co., N.C. militia lists show Whitely Manning, Moses Manning (my ancestor) Mathias, John & Wm. Manning. Ref: Colonial Soldiers of the South 1732-1774 by Clark.

My ancestor, Moses Manning is next found on the 1769 Dobbs Co., N.C. tax list, along with a John Clark. Moses Manning's family moved to Marion Co., S.C. prior to 1775 & many of his descendants later moved to Ga., Ala. & Miss. His grandson John Manning Sr. m. Letitia Lee in 1802. Ref. Our Kin by W. A. Manning.

According to Georgia Passports, John Lee (father of Letitia Lee Manning) & JOHN CLARK asked for permission to cross Indian territory in 1810. I do not know where they settled, only that John Lee died in 1818 in Spanish held Florida.

Hope this helps!

Sincerely,
Sandy Krutilek

Dear Rudy,
I looked up the State Dixie Senior baseball tournament and found articles from July through August of 1972. I used seventeen copies(.15 each) for a total of $2.55. Normally, we don't do this much research for someone but because you are out of town, I did it. We don't charge research fees, but small donations are certainly appreciated.

If you would like me to send you these copies, please let me know your mailing address. Otherwise I'll have a file on the tournament! I graduated from PHS in 1971 so I enjoyed reading about the tourney. Ray Roberts (coach for MP) was the dad of one of the players, David Roberts, who is a good friend of mine(a composer!). Ray passed on several years ago and so did his wife.

Sincerely,

Renee Gautier-Hague

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

While browsing through back-issues of 'Mississippi Genealogical Exchange', I came across your request for information on your Holley-Manning lines. I also am researching a line of Manning's that may or may not be the same family which you are interested. To date, I've had only moderate success in tracking these Manning's, however, there are similarities in time and location to the information you provided in your inquiry.

My great-grandfather, J.B. Manning (variously spelled) was born in Alabama in 1847 and to date I believe him to be the son of Bryant Manning of Butler, Lowndes, and Wilcox counties. This is conjecture without confirming information. J.B. (or Jesse Bryan(t)) migrated to Clarke Co., Ms. (1880 Census) and then Lauderdale Co., Ms. and on the 1900 Census was in Henderson Co., Tx. I lost Bryant after the 1860 Census in Wilcox Co. and in fact, have found no mention of this family other than in census records. You can see from the attached Census extracts for Bryant Manning that he (like other Manning's in this part of Alabama) followed similar migration patterns. On the 1830 Census, he was in close proximity to several other Manning's (Elijah and Benjamin, as well others - see below & attached census extracts).

In an effort to find information to prove my own line, I have came across information that you may or may not have discovered and which may prove beneficial in your search. The first reference to the Manning's that I've found in the part of Alabama (Butler, Lowndes, Wilcox Counties) we seem to be interested is in "THE HISTORY OF BUTLER COUNTY, ALABAMA FROM 1815 TO 1885", by John Buckner Little, Elm Street Printing Co., Cincinnati, 1885. The following quote (although not the only mention of the Manning's) seems to be of the most value:

"CHAPTER XVII
Manningham.

Elijah Manning brought his negroes to this place in the fall of 1818, and pitched the first tent on this soil. He brought his family from Georgia the next year, and was followed in 1820 by his cousin, Benjamin Manning. Both of these put up mills on Wolf Creek. Benjamin soon started a small store and had a post-office established for the convenience of the people. The Postmaster-General named the office Manningham, in honor of the first postmaster, which name it still retains." (page 105)

Another book of possible value is "BUTLER COUNTY IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY", by Marilyn Davis Hahn. This has a reference to Elijah Manning.

The following is from "OLD CAHABA LAND OFFICE RECORDS AND MILITARY WARRANTS 1817-1853".

page #	Name	Resident of	Location Township	Purchased Range
13	Elijah L. Manning	Washington Co, Ga (3/8/1819)	11	13
35	Elijah Manning	Butler Co, Ms (10/14/1820)	11	13
65	John Manning	Montgomery Co (8/12/1828)	15	20
87	John Manning	Wilcox Co.	11	7
	Robert Manning	Wilcox Co. (5/20/1831)	11	7
108	Gray L. Manning	Butler Co. (9/6/1833)	12	13
112	Simeon D. Manning	Monroe Co.	7	8
	Anderson B. Manning	Monroe Co. (11/20/1833)	7	8
147	John Manning	Wilcox Co. (3/24/1836)	12	7
148	John Manning	Butler Co. (3/28/1836)	11	13
156	Levi Manning	Butler Co. (5/28/1836)	11	13
172	Gray L. Manning	Lowndes Co. (9/20/1836)	12	14

I note, with some interest, that your inquiry makes mention of the surname 'Bryant'. Probably by coincidence, the Bryant surname is prominent in my lines. The Manning's that I've been researching originally came from Virginia to North Carolina; some then moved to South Carolina while others migrated to Georgia; then Alabama and/or Mississippi; and then Texas. In North Carolina, in particular, the Manning's and Bryant's inter-married.

Having given you a modest amount of information that might suggest some possible mutual research interests, I would ask that if you feel there are some possible links, let me know and I will share whatever additional that I may have. I do have a large file on the Manning's in both Alabama and Mississippi. I would be most interested to know if Hello, it was suggested to me by Arthur Jaramillo of the Mississippi Press that I contact you. He said that you might possibly have microfilm copies of the Pascagoula paper that was dated back in the last week of July or the first week of August 1972. The articles that I am searching for are concerning the State Dixie Senior baseball tournament that took place at approximately this time. I would be interested in any or all the articles that would have been reported about this tournament. If you indeed have something like this, please send information as to how I might obtain copies.

Thanks,
Rudy Manning
